

Tartars Slate Second Round Of League Play

By BILL SCHIPPER

The second half of the Bay League basketball schedule gets under way tomorrow night with Torrance's casabamen entertaining cross-town rival Mira Costa on the THS hardwood with tipoff time slated for 8 p.m. following the usual jayvee preliminary tilt. The six league teams remained idle on Tuesday after completing a spectacular first round set of games that featured last quarter victories, stunning upsets, and high individual scoring performances.

Leading the pack with a 4-1

MENACING MAULER . . . Dick Burton will compete tonight in the 8 p.m. wrestling meet between El Camino College and Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa. The 167-pound warrior threat pinned Ray McDermott of San Diego State in 2:10 minutes to pace the ECC 15-13 win over the Bordertown collegians.

Youngsters to Register Now

Roy O. Loyd, president of the Torrondo Little League, has announced registration for league play will continue this Saturday and every Saturday until March 15.

The hours are from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Carson Bowl, at Henrietta St., north of Torrance Blvd. A parent must accompany the boy and a birth certificate is required.

Those born between Aug. 1, 1946 and Aug. 1, 1950 are eligible to play if they reside in the area north of Del Amo to Ripley and Ralston Lane and west of Hawthorne Blvd. to Flagler. Those who played with the league last year are not required to re-register.

record is defending champion Santa Monica, followed by Redondo, Mira Costa, and Inglewood in a three-way tie for second place with 3-2 marks. Torrance is low in fifth, sporting a 2-3 league slate, and Leuzinger's hapless Olympians are in the cellar with 0-5.

Mustangs On Card
Tomorrow night Coach Dean Semperts' Mustangs will be out to reverse an earlier 58-54 loss to Torrance, and he'll be banking on 6-6 Center Mike McConnell, whose most recent accomplishments include a 37-point scoring performance against Leuzinger.

McConnell's total is highest in the league so far.
Countering for Coach Marty Pelka's determined quintet will be a starting five featuring Gene Crenshaw at center, Ray and Russ Vanderpool at forwards, Guards Dale Mead and Harlan Treskes.

Other games on the Bay League agenda include Redondo at Leuzinger, and Inglewood at Santa Monica, who'll be playing for the first time in three years without Perry Bates, the outstanding guard and playmaker that has guided the Vikings to many a cage win. The All-Bay Leaguer graduated at mid-term.

Probable starting lineups:
Torrance Mira Costa
Ray Vanderpool F Smith
Russ Vanderpool F Clay
Crenshaw C McConnell
Mead G Dinnell
Treskes G Beard

The standings are:

Team	Won	Lost
Santa Monica	4	1
Mira Costa	3	2
Inglewood	3	2
Redondo	3	2
Torrance	2	3
Leuzinger	0	5

Little League Meet Slated

Registration for the North Torrance Little League baseball program will be held tomorrow night, 8 o'clock in the Crenshaw School auditorium.

All boys 12 years of age and under are eligible for the league. There will be six major and six minor north Torrance teams fielded this year.

North High Bows to Beverly Hills Squad

By BILL RUSTRUM

Beverly Hills kept a firm grip on the top position in the Pioneer League as a result of their 60-41 win over North High last Tuesday.

The win was much more than the Normans first round conquest of the Saxons which ended in a one-point margin of victory.

Tony Mance, North's top scorer, connected for 17 points in Tuesday's fracas, to lead both teams in the scoring column.

Jim Shulhofer and Burt Rosenberg led the Normans with 16 tallies a piece.

The loss was the local's sixth in league play and left Beverly Hills with a 5-1 record.

Playing with first stringer Byron Lapin the Normans pulled out to a 39-21 halftime lead, and coasted throughout the last two periods.

In the junior varsity game, North High led the Normans for three quarters but fell behind in the fourth, going down to defeat, 54-39. Jack Golphene with 13 points was high man for the local hoopsters while Randy Wright led the Beverly Hills quintet with 19.

City Titles Up for Grabs As Basketball League Set

The city-wide boys' basketball league sponsored by the Torrance recreation department began its action-filled schedule Saturday at North High and Torrance High gyms.

In the latter gymnasium, the Spartans, paced by Ernie Clayton's nine field goals for 18 points and Stan Waters 17 points, built up a 27-1 half-time lead, and then coasted to a lopsided 45-4 victory. Bobby Zach's eight points and excellent floor game, coupled with Dave Birmingham's strong rebounding, paced the Rangers to a 23-9 Rocky Mountain League victory over the Cougars.

Steelers Triumph

The Steeler's 18-16 triumph over the Buzzards was the top thriller at Torrance High. Stellar shooting by Jim Brennan and Jerry McClain assured the hard earned victory for the Steeler quintet. Eager teams were also on hand at North Torrance to prove their title contentions. The 49's edged the Vikings 12-10 and the Royals, led by Jim McCarty and Albert Christensen, outlasted the Lakers 12-9. The Spartans were very persuasive in their 45-4 conquest of the Devils. 19 points by John McMahon and 14 by Dennis Young led the winners to their first Skyline League victory of the young season.

Cats Win 32-8

Coach Vern Clary's Cats proved they must be reckoned with in the Rocky Mountain League as they dropped the Gobblins 32-8. Joe Day cut the nets for half of his team's

BATTER UP . . . Jean Christie might not have the batting average of Ted Williams, but she makes a pretty picture. points in the Cat's initial victory. The Wolves, with Mike Dessert hitting for 12 points, outscored the Saints 19-17 in a game that went down to the final gun. A close checking Wolf defense, in the final minutes, assured the victory.

In another Rocky Mountain League game, the Racers defeated the Rovers, 23-14. Jim Jackson, director at North Torrance gym indicates he has openings for two teams in the skyline league for boys aged 10-12 years. This Saturday will be the deadline for those interested to sign up.

Taking part in the annual Redondo Beach Elks Club's charity baseball game at 1:30 p.m. will be such stars as Gus Zernial, Lou Berberet, George Witt, Bud Daley, Ralph Mauriello, Jim Marshall, George Anderson, Rocky Bridges, Roy Smally, Gene Mauch, Peanuts Lowery, Johnny Lindell, Ed Stewart, and George Vico.

Minor league players will include Stan Willis, Gene Dupree, Paul Petit, Jimmy Rice. Coaches will be Joe Stevenson, scout for the Boston Red Sox, and John Kerr, former major leaguer. Ray Jacobs will be manager.

Coaches for the major league players will be Johnny Lindell, George Metkovich and Gene Mauch.

Umpires will be Emmett Ashford, of the Coast league, Butch Simas, of the PCC umpiring staff, and Vince Ciallella, exalted ruler of the Redondo Beach Elks.

Squad Remains In Cellar Spot

On the road for their past three conference conflicts, El Camino College Warriors will hit the asphalt again this weekend, doing battle in Long Beach tomorrow night, the heading East LA-ward Saturday.

Confident that they will return to the winning ways which they demonstrated until ineligibility and inexperience overtook them at this time in 1957, the El Cams face two teams which have already taken decisions in the season's play.

Long Beach, a perennial winner against the Warriors, has nabbed 18 wins in past games, El Camino claiming only four victories since conference play was initiated in 1946. In the first round opener on the ECC courts a month ago, the Vikings waxed the Warriors 87-61, despite a strong El Camino half-time lead.

No Lettermen

The locals, working without the services of a single returning letterman, have shown improvement since the season opener, though dropping all of their league conflicts to date. Coach George Stanich is optimistic that second-round play will show a revitalized Warrior squad and predicts at least four wins before the conference records are tabulated.

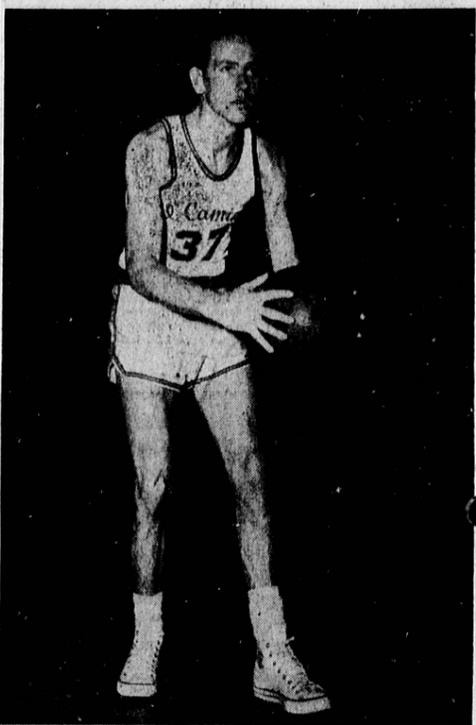

Stanich has juggled his starting line-up throughout the season, but is expected to start Mike Bright and John Spoiler at the forward spots, Kelly Kappen at center, and George Hale and Bob Hutton at the guard positions.

Long Beach, featuring the high-scoring play of Center Dick Markowitz, will probably start Dan Ayala and Bob Berry as guards and Dave Jones and Bill Jordan as forwards along with the 6 foot 4 1/2 inch Markowitz.

To Meet Huskies

Heading the scoring parade for the Huskies of East LA to date are Eliseo Nino, a stand-out on the 1957 squad; Art Jenkins, and Ray Thorton, the Warriors hope to gain revenge for the 87-58 defeat pinned on them by East LA during the first round.

Both teams have inhabited the nether regions of conference standings this season. El Camino has a 12-11 edge over the Huskies in conference play.

GOOD TEAM MAN . . . Guard George Hale has been tabbed as a starter on the El Camino College basketball squad. An Army vet, Hale was named to the All-Marine League squad in prep days when he played for Gardena High.

Club Elects New Officers

Sea-Aire Teenage Golf Club of the Torrance recreation department met Saturday morning to elect officers.

Named were: president, Lloyd Lessor; vice president, Evans Jones; secretary, Carole Woodman; treasurer, Fred Carr. The officers announce that they welcome any teenagers from the 7th through 12th grades for membership. Lessons are given by Coach Bill Wood at the course on Saturday mornings from 8 to 11.

Those who have received previous instruction may come at 8 and receive help in going around the course. Teenagers wishing to begin instructions Saturday are asked to come at 10.

648s in the Ryan Aircraft League. D. Martain has the top men's game—273. R. Morris with a 625 and D. Fisher with a 228 are entered in the staff scoring side.

In the Douglas Mixed "700" Handicap League, Wilkie Wilkinson rolled the weekly high series of 555, trailed closed by Marie Lemmen with a 508. Gene Baker wound up with a 244 game and Alta Allen with a 186 in the weekly competition.

Another club meeting will be held Saturday, Feb. 15, at which time plans will be discussed for club sponsorship in the golf exhibition to be held at the Sea-Aire course Feb. 12 at 3:30 with Bud Oakley, professional from Palos Verdes Country Club (president of Southern California Professional Golfers' Assn.); Bill Feltenberger, teaching professional from WALTERIA Fairways; Alton Age, professional of Alondra Park; Coach Bill Wood of North High, and Al Fisher, who holds the course record, participating.
